

GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL, MARRIED TWO MONTHS, IS KILLED BY HUNTER

Got in Range as Friend Fired at Deer in New Mexican Mountains.

ROSWELL, N. M., Oct. 17.—Prof. M. G. Hammar, entomologist of the United States Department of Agriculture, who for the last two years has been doing special work in this State, was accidentally shot and killed by C. J. Leland, a druggist of this city, yesterday, while they were hunting in the Capitan Mountains.

Leland, not knowing Prof. Hammar was in range of two deer, fired with an automatic rifle. The bullet struck Hammar in the abdomen, killing him instantly.

Prof. Hammar had been married but two months. His widow formerly was Miss Marian Herne, daughter of a newspaper man of Parkersburg, W. Va.

Leland gave himself up to the officers after bringing the body here.

LOSES $6,000 AT POKER; THREE MEN GET IT, HE SAYS

Police Raid a Place in the Tenderloin and Find Plenty of Cards and Chips.

A poker-room was raided at 1 o'clock this morning in the midst of what had been thought to be the barren Tenderloin—at No. 78 Sixth avenue, near Forty-fifth street. Three men, for whom warrants as common gamblers had been issued by Magistrate Barlow, were picked out of a crowd of thirty-five or forty and were held by the Magistrate later in the day in $1,000 bail apiece. They were Otto Hanson of No. 68 West One Hundred and Seventy-third street and Joseph Pellock of No. 48 East One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street. The complainant against them in the West Side Court was Henry Hirschfeld of No. 44 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn.

When Detectives Leonard and all-holds of Inspector Dwyer's staff, with a score of policemen at their backs, broke down a door on the second floor of the Sixth avenue premises they found a suite of three rooms. There were no roulette wheels, but the detectives found a bushel box full of cards and enough poker chips to have paved the Tenderloin in the old days when the gamblers flourished there.

In court today Fred Rosenthal of No. 39 West Sixty-first street took the stand to say that the three men under arrest had taken $6,000 from him across the poker table, but that he had been a "good sport" until now.

WOODRUFF'S ESTATE TO WIDOW AND SON

Property of Late Progressive Leader Probably Reaches Value of More Than $1,000,000.

The will of the late Timothy L. Woodruff was filed in the Surrogate's office, Brooklyn, to-day. It is a brief document of six paragraphs and contains only as many words as are necessary to convey his entire estate in equal shares to his widow, Mrs. Isabel Morrison Woodruff, and his son, John Eastman Woodruff, and to appoint them, with his brother-in-law, Rodney Allen Ward, executors without bond.

The executors are empowered to continue Mr. Woodruff's various enterprises and investments, to liquidate any debts against his estate in the manner they deem best, or to continue loans. They are not to be held responsible for losses in the enterprises they conduct except for gross negligence or mismanagement, and they are requested to consult at all times with his counsel, Horace White of Syracuse.

It was Mr. White who drew the will on Jan. 31, 1906, when Mr. Woodruff was in Syracuse.

The specific request is made to his widow and son that they continue his various operations, but they are not required to do so.

Wilson W. Thompson, of the firm of Bassett, Thompson & Gilpatrick, of No. 277 Broadway, filed the will and petition. The latter gives no estimate of the estate, employing simply the legal form of announcing both real and personal property to be in excess of $1,000. Mr. Thompson said he had not the slightest idea of the extent of Mr. Woodruff's estate except that it was large. It is said by friends of Mr. Woodruff that he left more than $1,000,000.

DESCRIBES BARNES AS TAMMANY BROKER

Leader of Bronx Progressives Fires
Broadside at Republican State Chairman.

The rent in Fulton harmony growing out of the Bull Moose and Republican squabbles over Aldermanic and Assembly candidates became much larger to-day when County Chairman August F. Schwarzer of the Bronx Progressive party in a stinging statement characterized the Republican State Chairman, William Barnes, as a broker of Tammany Hall. Schwarzer is running a Progressive Committee of 107 ticket against the regular Democratic and another ticket made up of Republicans and disgruntled Democrats under "Gene McGuire."

"If the voters of this county wish to defeat Tammany Hall, they can do it only by voting the Progressive ticket," said Mr. Schwarzer to-day. "A vote for any other ticket is merely a vote for Tammany Hall through the medium of Broker Barnes, and any one who votes for any of these disguised Tammany tickets may as well save the broker's commission and vote directly for the Tammany candidates. If our ticket is defeated it will be because the Kneelitz-McGuire combination refuses to support it."

Mr. Schwarzer pointed out that the Bull Moose party polled 25,000 votes in the borough last fall. He said that the party was quite willing to accept the recommendations of the Citizens' Committee, but Progressives refused to join the "discredited Republican party or the McGuire paper organization" to undo the work of the Committee of one Hundred and Seven. The three-cornered Bronx fight is the most bitterly contested of any of the borough struggles.
